“ She was a wonderful mother, who put up with a lot and loved us all. She was kind, caring, and always giving. She was one of the few people I know that truly walked with God in her heart.

“ Glenda holds a special place in my heart. I have known her since the mid 1990s and my heart is grieved at her passing. I know without a doubt she is with her Savior and Lord but she will surely be missed. May her family be wrapped in the loving arms of Jesus now and in the coming weeks. We have all lost such a great friend and family member.

“ Having known Glenda since high school I can simply say she will be remembered for her faith, friendship, loving spirit, and kindness. At our last hug as I helped her stand we looked in each others eyes and said “I Love You”. And that makes me smile today. Hugs and prayers to the family.
