ME

“ I wish i would have met gordie many years before i did. After our first introduction he made me feel like we had been family forever. I lost my dad a few years ago and gordie sort of filled that hole in my heart and i think he sensed it and treated me like a son. I will miss him dearly but im confident we will meet up again and our passion for horses and the stories that come with them will take right back off where we left them. Will miss you buddy.... Jackie im here for you like gordie always told me he would be here for me so dont hesitate to ask anything you need from me or my family. Love you.
