

J.B. 'Red' Ogden

August 17, 1936 - February 22, 2014

J. B. “Red” Ogden, 77 of rural Wagoner, passed away Saturday, February 22, 2014 after a lengthy illness. He was born August 17, 1936 to Ebb and Thelma (Strickland) Ogden in Spiro, Oklahoma. One of seven children, J. B. grew up and attended public schools in Spiro and Okemah. In 1951, his senior year of high school at Okemah, he was the Place Kicker on the football team that went to the State Championship. After finishing his education, J. B. enlisted in the United States Army and served his country until he was honorably discharged.

J. B. is remembered as a ‘hard worker’ and owned his own automotive repair business, B and R Automotive. During his career at B and R Automotive, he met the love of his life, Sue Gaydos, when he sold her a car—that day began their more than 30 years together.

J. B.’s hobbies include; hunting, fishing, riding his new lawn mower and spending time outdoors with his family and friends. His son kindly remembers the time they spent together doing these hobbies and how much they both enjoyed the time together. His favorite saying from his daughter is “I love you from the sky to the ground.” J. B. was loved and will be truly missed by all who knew him.

He is preceded in death by his parents; his brothers, Ewell Ogden and Wayne Ogden; and his sister, Jewel Yates.

J. B. is survived by his wife, Sue; his children, Jeff Ogden and wife Jeana of Muskogee, Shawna Allen and husband Robert of Owasso; his grandchildren,

Caleb Ogden of Muskogee, Logan Allen of Owasso and Remington Allen of Owasso; his sisters, Jeanie Hall of Virginia Beach, VA, Louise Cromer of San Diego, CA and Gladys Ogden of Arkansas; and numerous other family members and friends.

Funeral services will be 2:00 P.M. Wednesday, February 26, 2014 at Cornerstone Funeral Home Chapel with Reverend Tom Shelton officiating. Masonic rights will be provided by local Muskogee area Masons. Honorary pallbearers will be Cliff Trussell, Caleb Ogden, Ernest Murray, and Logan Allen.
