

Jack W. Macomb

August 27, 1937 - July 16, 2019

Jack Macomb, 81, of Muskogee, was called home to Heaven on July 16, 2019. Jack was born August 27, 1937 to John O. Macomb and Mary Ava (Seals) (Macomb) Crane in Porter, Oklahoma. He graduated from Muskogee Central High School in 1955. On January 30, 1957 he married the love of his life and best friend, Doris Maxine (Clark) Macomb. They were happily married for 62 years and worked side by side throughout their marriage in service to the Lord. Jack was an insurance agent in Muskogee before deciding later in life to complete his education, earning a Bachelors of Science in Education from Northeastern State University. He retired from teaching Social Studies at Haskell High School, and fully dedicated the remainder of his life to God, church, and family. He was Pastor at East Shawnee Church of God in Muskogee from 2004 to 2019. His favorite pastimes were fishing and deer hunting.

The phrase "To know him is to love him" could have been written about Jack. He greeted everyone with a warm smile that immediately made them feel comfortable and at ease. He was known for little sayings and jokes that made everyone laugh and smile along with him. He was always the person people knew they could count on to be there for them. He willingly and lovingly spent long hours at the bedsides of sick friends and family members, on call day or night. He was always there to pray with you, provide a ride, or lend a listening ear. He was the most amazing and supportive father. His children would not have traded him for the world.

Jack was preceded in death by his father, John Macomb; his parents, Robert E. and Mary Ava Crane; his granddaughter, Cassandra Dawn Taylor; and daughter-in-law, Debbie (Ford) Macomb.

He leaves behind his loving wife, Doris Maxine Macomb; brother, Glenn Macomb (and wife Karen); sister, Earlene Salyers (and husband JR); son, Michael W. Macomb, Sr. (and wife Lynn), all of Muskogee; daughter, Jackie Frock, of Oklahoma City, daughter, Melissa Welsby (and husband Allan), of Scotland, daughter, Julie Macomb (and fiancé Stormie Rice), Muskogee; grandchildren, Katy Graham (and husband Sean), Ashley Macomb, Michael Macomb, Jr., all of Muskogee, Brandi Smith (and husband Phil), Caroline Koch (and husband Matt), Madeline Frock, all of Oklahoma City, Brianna Taylor (and fiancé Cayton Moore), of Norman; twelve great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; and a large group of extended family and friends, all of whom will miss him dearly.

The family will receive friends from 5:30-7:30PM, Friday, July 19, 2019 at Cornerstone Funeral Home.

Funeral services will be at 10am, Saturday July 20, 2019 at Cornerstone Funeral Home Chapel in Muskogee. Interment will follow at Memorial Park Cemetery.

“ I met Jack through my husband John. One day John & I were walking at Arrowhead Mall & we ran into Jack, who was also out there walking. John introduced me to Jack. He was a super nice & friendly man. We ran into him several times out there walking over the years. I'm so sorry for your loss. Your family will be in my thoughts & prayers during this difficult time.

“ I have many memories of Uncle Jack which were all good but the one that sticks out the most is he taught me how to snap my fingers to The Lone Ranger theme. I remember being in awe watching him do that and I kept trying and he didn't give up on me and I finally figured it out and I still do it today and I do it for little cousins and teach them. Also catch myself doing it whenever I get down or upset and it shows me not to give up is what Uncle Jack taught me.. he always treated me the same no matter what all through my life and I had great respect for him and love very much but most importantly he was there always I was always encouraging! I love you Uncle Jack and thank you from the bottom of my heart I will miss you dearly

That's a beautiful memory, Jeff, that would mean so much to Dad to know he inspired you that way. I still do that finger snapping tune, too!

“ I shared this when we had the MyFamily.com site years ago. As most know, Dad was the oldest of the Clark siblings .With 8 children to support we were very poor and sometimes were not the most popular. We lived in the boondocks so when we got to come to Muskogee, it was such a treat to get out of the hills of Peggs. Living out in nature was scary and the creek/hills could be very unforgiving.

The best part of coming to Grandma's house was knowing I would get to see Aunt Mac and Uncle Jack. I would run to uncle Jack and sit in his lap the whole time. I know it must have wearied him, but he never made me get up. I loved him and the comfort I felt. It was a safe place, today I would liken it to Jesus .A safe ,loving place of contentment ,peace and joy.

I had wonderful parents that loved us very much but his was a place that helped me to dig deeper into the love of God.

Thank you Aunt Mac, Jackie,Melissa,Julie and Michael for sharing him with us.

We are all better humans for being blessed with Uncle/Pastor Jack Macomb pouring into our lives and shaping our destiny's <3

I have many memories of his laughter and infectious smile but this is forever etched in my soul.I share this story often when I'm in conference sharing the God kind of love that forever changed my life from a God lap !
