He was a longtime resident of Muskogee. He retired from the Muskogee Police Department as a Major and to move to the Porum area to build his dream home to live out his years with his beautiful bride Neoma by his side.

He was also a veteran served in the Navy.

In his retired years, he enjoy sitting on what he called his land “the hill” sitting and enjoying all the trees and the privacy they were able to have. His children and grandchildren were always welcome to come by, with the words “If you are in the neighborhood come by”. That was how the invitation was given.

Many springs and summers he enjoyed taking his grandchildren and wife to the lake and to play in the sand at Porum Landing. He would spend hours with his grandchildren exploring and telling stories to the kids. Some of his stories were truths but some were stretched so big that he would have the adults amazed. He would find joy also taking them shopping at Boy Howdy to let them pick out a toy to bring back and play on The Hill. He enjoyed traveling and adventures with his beautiful wife Neoma Clinton. His name was “Pa” by all his family members.

“ J W was our handsome, “cool cousin” sailor boy in his navy uniform! My older brother Wallace was closer in age to J W but I always admired him so much. I remember Pat invited me to their home to spend a few days when Jay taught us a little archery. He was patient & kind, though he liked to tease me at times. I remember his amazing art while he was in a technical college in Okmulgee, OK. He was always a favorite among our whole family. Praying for God to give his incredible peace & comfort to the entire family!

“ I was Mr Clintons Respiratory Therapist for the past 4 years. I always made sure I had extra time to just sit and visit with him. He was my favorite patient and I will always remember him and his home on the hill.
