

James "Jimmy" A. Clutter

January 5, 1951 - November 10, 2014

James "Jimmy" A. Clutter, 63, passed away Monday, November 10, 2014. He was born January 5, 1951 to James and Ruth Clutter in the old Baptist Hospital in Muskogee, Oklahoma. Jim spent his whole life in Muskogee. In his earlier years, he spent many hours playing baseball in a neighborhood full of same age boys. He graduated from Muskogee High School in 1969, where Jim met his high school sweetheart, Carol. They both attended Northeastern State College together and were later married on December 28, 1970. We enjoyed our journey through our happy married life.

He proudly served his country as a member of the Oklahoma National Guard from 1971-1977.

Jim worked at Brockway Glass Company for 43 years until his recent retirement due to illness.

Jim and Carol both loved to travel. They went on 13 cruises that visited Hawaii, Mexico, Bahama Islands, and Aruba. He also enjoyed getting together with friends to visit and play cards.

Jim's greatest joy came from spending time with his family, especially his grandkids. He loved reading to them, taking them to the pond to fish, and sharing his love of traveling with them, taking them on vacations, including cruises.

Jim will always be remembered as the best husband, father, grandfather, and friend.

He will be truly missed.

Jim leaves behind his wife, Carol; 3 daughters, Christy Polston and husband, Gene, Melanie Staner, and Catherine Clay and husband, JJ; 5 grandsons, Chase Staner, Justin Staner, Jake York, Jason York, and Diesel Clay; sister-in-law, Elaine Gugello; sister, Karen Ferguson and husband, Hal; along with many nieces and nephews in Texas and Oklahoma; other family members and many friends.

Funeral Services for Jim will be 2:00 P.M., Friday, November 14, 2014 at Cornerstone Funeral Home Chapel with Rev. Steven Alexander officiating. Interment will follow at Greenhill Cemetery. Pallbearers will be Chase Staner, Jake York, Justin Staner, Gene Polston, J.J. Clay, and Sloan Staner. Honorary Pallbearers will be James Jordan, Ronnie Thayer, and Ray White.

“ Jim Clutter you were my maintenance man for many years. You always fixed my problem, and we would laugh you never backed me up running samples, cause I would say "you only took 42 seconds" Enjoyed you on my shift but when days came up you were gone. Your family needed you on days. We will all miss you but will see you in heaven. Carol so sorry for your loss. Jim was a real friend. Paula Bowley

“ Carol: Tom and I moved across the street from you and Jim one year ago. You and Jim pulled into our driveway and invited us to dinner, making us feel welcome and happy to become your neighbors.

Carol and family, we know your hearts are aching. Know that you are in our thoughts and prayers. Remember, we are just across the street.

“ Jimmy your love and compassion for others will be greatly missed. One of the highest compliments a man can get is to be referred to as "gentle" and that you were. My children grew up without a father but if I could have picked one for them it would have been someone like you. Your love and compassion for Carol and the girls was so heartwarming. Keep spreading your joy in Heaven sweet guy.
