“ Oh my dear sweet Jimmy Mack! I'm incredibly sad to have found this. You'll never know how many times I've thought about you and the amazing times we had together. I was 16 and madly in love with you. From our silly little stuffed animals we would buy for each other that resided in the back seat of your crazy cool VW bug, to the fairly mild parties we had at your apartment where we tried our first sips of moonshine from one your neighbors, you always treated me with respect and were a true gentleman. I loved that you came looking for me at Lake Havasu but always regretted that you couldn't find me - you would have loved going out in the boat and skiing. Thank you for sending me your Army photo with the kind and loving note, that I still have and cherish. I so regret that we lost touch but I'll never forget your beautiful soul and the love we shared, if even for a short time. Rest In Peace, Coco.

“ I remember those days of piling into the car and driving to the beach. Jimmy and my brother, Tom Shreffler, surfed together. They did everything together -- good and bad, I'm sure. But they were like brothers. RIP, Jim. Ada Shreffler Hand

“ Jim brought many a smile and great friendship to legions of us in Corona. He was a classmate, and I offer my sincere condolences and well wishes to his great family and to his friends. Jim was definitely a person that enhanced the lives of others, and his ready smile was a real mood-lifter. This great man will be missed.

“ Sweet Jimmy, you were always one who was able to make do what I love most, and that is to laugh. I'll forever remember your boyish smile and the comradery you enjoyed with all your surf buddies and partners in crime. The world is a little dimmer, now, but we'll all be together again, one day. Give my love to Shreff and Leonard, and abig hug for you too.
