“ James and I worked together at MWRD. We had so much fun. We worked the same shift and he and I would always go looking for the crooks. He had so much to talk about and loved his Brenda so much. I always enjoyed going by his house as he always had something going on. One time while on stakeout on a store Jim had to chase and catch the naked guy that has appeared in the middle of the night. That was a great catch and we laughed so much about that. I have always missed him when he moved and I am sorry that I did not get the chance to see him again.

Thank you Ernie for giving me a smile. Jim and I still talked about all of you from MWRD and the good times some of you had. I never think of you without remembering you getting Jim on that horse for the parade.

“ Do me a favor and give Pa and Marvin (my Dad) a big hug for me. Tell them how much we miss them. And I hope you know how much we'll all miss you. I know that you're there helping to prepare a place for us. But mostly, I know you're playing catch up with so many now that your life and memory will never fade. You were loved by many....son, husband, father, brother, uncle....friend. RIP...Uncle Jimmy.
