“ My deepest sympathies to Jimmy’s family. What a gentle giant of a man Jimmy was. His faith was very real and it was my privilege to be at his baptism and joining our church just a few months ago. He spoke of being married many years again in our church. He returned to this church because his wife had been a member. And he missed his wife very much. We’ll hold you family up in prayers that our Lord will be near to you during this time.
