“ Janie (as we called her), was an angel sent by God. The entire Palmer family loved her beautiful personality, her music, and her memory of phone numbers, birthdays and your voice. Every time we got together, she always had a smile. She will be missed.

Julia, thanks for being a great "care-taker". We love you and the family.

“ I was the hospice nurse who cared for Edwina. I will never, ever forget how Janie cared for her mother. We wrote large numbers 1, 2, 3, etc on the top of Edwina's prescription bottles. Each of us carried a list of what medicine was in what bottle. If Janie had a problem with her mom-- pain, nausea, etc---she would call us day or night and we would tell her how many to give from what bottle. She ALWAYS got it right. What a sweet, sweet woman.
