“ Jared, you know what you were to me, a biological cousin but a big brother in every other sense. We didn't live close enough to see each other and spend time together as adults but I knew that didn't matter. If I called you and said I needed help you would have been on the first flight to get to me. It doesn't feel real that you're gone. I remember the last time I saw you, it was the day after grandma passed away and I got to hug you and say I love you. We had no idea that day would be the last. I wish it wasn't. Life is unfair sometimes and you deserved better. Thank you for being you. I will always miss my big brother.
