“ We all grew up together, we played NES, we laughed, we fought... we where kids. It was the best time to be alive for our time. We lived in the same area of Jackson Bay/Sequoia Bay. I would get off the bus at Jasons house and kick it, play games or fight someone...lol Like I said we all were just kids living in Okay. And I would walk the field uphill to my house by the water towers. Memories I'll never forget. I myself just hit 40 years in July. I've long been out of Okay and have a beautiful family. I hurt for you all. Through Facebook we've all reconnected over these past few years. I'm very grateful for that. You will be missed Jayso that's what we used to call him. That's what he means to me. God Bless. -Chris Parks
