Jeff was a fanatic about 2 things, recycling and OKC thunder Basketball. Once a month Jeff would go from house to house collecting the family's recyclables. If you didn't recycle then "Shame on YOU." Jeff being a dedicated Thunder Fan would rather watch the Thunder play ball than eat.

Regardless of his physical difficulties, Jeff loved to have a good time and found humor in life's everyday situations. Jeff was very witty and would go out of his way just to tell a funny joke or to make you laugh. He always said Good Bye with a Big Hug and "I Love You." Jeff was unique in so many ways and to know him was a Pleasure.

He is preceded in death by his grandparents, L.E. (Buster) Walker and Allie Walker and Charles and Juanita Jones and Grady Woods.
