“ I know you were unable to go as much as you wanted to here on earth...but there is no stopping you now. I bet you can go faster than the fastest car. By the way, as much as it pains me, I will continue aggravating your mom for you. I will miss watching you roll those pretty eyes at her, your smiling face and your sense of humor. Thanks for the laughter you brought into my life and sharing your funny stories with me.

I love and miss you so very much.
