Jerry was one of the kindest guys you could ever know. We met at West Junior High in 1956 and remained friends even after I moved to Tulsa and Houston. I visited Muskogee frequently returning in 2019. We both loved good bands and had many mutual friends plus he had an adorable sweet wife, Margie. Unfortunately for me I was in the hospital with a broken shoulder and missed saying goodbye for now as he joins his close friend, Sammy Biggs in Heaven. He will be missed by so many people.
