“ Dearest Dad, It was a good day for my Dad, even a better day for me. A day to share my love and admiration for a truly great man. The Measure of a Man. That measure left me by my Dad is the measurement all of us need to measure ourselves to. My dad would always ask me.....how far is it?
I hope to be that exceptional son, husband, dad, Popo, someone that would make my dad very, very proud as I strive to live up to the Measure of a Man. I am now the captain, the steward of my dads legacy by being the man my dad molded me to be. With God's help, I will succeed, I will never forget you Dad!

There were over 215 signatures in his memorial book tonight, and I want to thank all who took time out of your lives to pay tribute to my Dad. I know that he has paved a great road for our family. Thank You I have seen the Measure of a Man.

Love always,
Robert

“ From your younger brother Bo. I will miss you Jess. No one ever had a better brother. Period. I really enjoyed sitting next to you in church, a month ago, and singing with you.
Please reserve me a spot in our fathers mansion. If you have to Jess borrow "my spot" from Peter, Paul, James or John. I am sure they will understand.

Like the Apostle Paul - you fought the fight and you kept the faith.

Love Bo.

“ To The Family and loved ones of Jesse, Fond memories of this great man and his constant laughter. He always had a smile and a kind word with a loving hug.

He was really a man of God and will be missed by my family, Hoyt and Betty Payne and my boys.

Hoyt wanted to extend his sympathy and love to Anna and family.
May the peace and Spirit of our God be with you in this difficult time.

All my prayers and love,

Jennifer Martin and family Hoyt and Betty Payne.

“ To Anna and the family of Jesse,

I always enjoyed my friendship and experience of Jesse. He embraced life with a smile and set others at ease with his warmth and acceptance.

He enjoyed, and chose, the simple pleasures of life. it was obvious that his love for God, Anna, family, and others was the true fruit of the Spirit.

You have my sympathy and love in your time of sorrow.

May God comfort you with His love,

Bill Johnson
