“ Reading his story, I see where you get your love of the outdoors and your deep sense of family, and looking at his pic tells me which parent you look the most like. It doesn't matter how old we are, it is always hard to let a parent go. I am sorry for your loss, Michael. Everything he was to you is still carried in the memory of your heart, that part can never leave you. Hugs to you, Hope, and your girls, Alice
