

Joanne R. Weaver

February 29, 1932 - December 20, 2014

Joanne Ruth Weaver, 82 of Muskogee, passed away Saturday morning, December 20, 2014, surrounded by her family. She was born on Leap Year's Day, February 29, 1932 to Burton and Phyllis (White) Dudley in Erie, Pennsylvania. She grew up and attended public schools, finishing her education in 1948.

Her family kindly remembers that Joanne enjoyed working with numbers and she used that skill in her professional life as she was a bank teller and bookkeeper. Her career in banking spanned over 10 years.

On May 5, 1978, she married her best friend, Charles D. "Chuck" Weaver, in Wilburton, Oklahoma. They celebrated over 36 years of marriage together. Joanne's hobbies included cooking, baking and playing golf. Chuck recalls how Joanne enjoyed baking pies and playing golf together. Joanne was a member of Southeast Baptist Church and was very involved and serving in WMU.

She is preceded in death by her parents; her first husband, Gene Grandstaff; and her stepdaughter, Patsy Weaver Arnold.

Joanne is survived by her husband, Chuck Weaver of the home; her son, Robert Grandstaff and wife, Wanda of Tecumseh, OK; her stepchildren, Dauna Howard and husband Randy, Michael Weaver and wife Andrea, Cindy Mancuso and husband Mark; her grandchildren, Genia Jones, Tammy Reno, Justin Arnold, Stephanie Lenington and husband Donnie, Adam Howard and wife Suzanne, Rachael West and husband Damien, Robin Clodfelter and
