“ Most of you won't know me at all. I am the oldest grandkid of John Bennett, Faye's older brother. My mom is Arlene Bennett, John and Pauline Bennett's oldest daughter. I didn't have a lot of exposure to this side of the family. However, I want to share a memory that I do have of the Peters clan. I don't know what the special reason was that we were all gathered, but I think it was an anniversary or a birthday. There were a lot of people there, at least that is what my preteen or teen brain remembered. We were in a home that I didn't recognize, my guess is Faye and Buford's, but I could be wrong. The impact that this gathering had on me was after dinner. We were sitting around talking and the next thing I knew musical instruments were appearing from everywhere. It seemed like everyone played something. I didn't have anything but my voice. So, I sang along to this jam session and enjoyed every minute of it. They played and several of us sang along to gospel, country, oldies of all kinds. I knew my grandpa loved music and then I could see that it wasn't just him. It was his whole family! Like I said, I don't remember much, but what I do remember was good. This evening of celebration and family is part of me and a part of the legacy of this family. I am so sorry for your loss and wish you nothing but good memories as you cope with his passing. I will be praying for you all and will always remember this family with music in my heart.

Such a nice memory to share. I'm Amy Sue, Boots & Judy's oldest, Faye & Bruford's granddaughter. Chances are I was there too! Hope to meet you someday!
