

Johnny H. Taylor

April 2, 1965 - January 11, 2025

Johnny Harold Taylor, 59, of Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, passed away on Saturday, January 11, 2025, with his mother and father by his side. He was born on April 2, 1965, in Muskogee, Oklahoma, to John Harold and Kathryn Ann (Kelley) Taylor. Johnny graduated from East Central High School and spent much of his career in the Human Resources and Accounting departments at Softouch Development, where he was employed at the time of his passing.

Johnny was baptized in Greenleaf Lake on August 7, 1979, and his faith remained an important part of his life as he loved the Lord with all his heart.

He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Loak and Gladys Taylor, and Jeff and Veva Kelley.

Johnny is survived by his loving parents, John and Kathryn Taylor; his brother, Jeff Taylor, and wife Miriam; his daughter, Kelley Haulcomb, and husband Darrin; his cherished grandsons, Gunner Harrison and Bryson Haulcomb; his nieces and nephews: Noah, Matt, Sara, and Rachel Taylor; his ex-wife, Carolyn Taylor, and her family; his longtime family friend, Curtis Rotert; and many dear friends and extended family who will miss him deeply.

A graveside service will be held for Johnny at 1:30 PM on Wednesday,

January 15, 2025, at South Bethel Cemetery in Braggs, Oklahoma. The service will be officiated by Mr. Danny Doolin. Special musical tributes will be provided by Kace Ayers, who will be playing the violin.

Johnny's memory will be cherished by all who knew him.
