“ I was so shocked to read of Juanima's passing. I just saw her recently at Walgreen's. She was always so sweet and friendly, and you could count on her great smile. I am so sorry for your loss.

“ Before Juanima retired, she attended Community of Hope in Tulsa with me. I grew fond of her. Her work involved the welfare of children and she was often moved by their plight and even had people within the congregation who she considered Prayer Warriors who shared her concern. She could be focused on the most serious of issues and her sly sense of humor would shine through. No situation seemed out of reach of a lighthearted moment.

The last conversation I had with Juanima was at the Equality Center where we were having a earnest conversation, but I totally lost my focus when I read the funny tee-shirt she had on and we laughed together. The world will be a dimmer place without her but I'm so grateful I knew her. My life is richer for it. Penny Fruth, Claremore, OK
