PS

Julee was my best partner & friend at our boys college ball games! She made me laugh like no other & she had so many little words of wisdom. She was more than awesome & a true earth angel. She once told me that if I find a dime it meant I was in the presence of a passed live one. "I found a dime today!" I love & miss you Jules! Your actions portrayed your great character. I know you are now an angel above.
