

Julie Ann Swearingin

April 5, 1947 - December 23, 2012

Julie Ann Bennett Swearingin was called home to be with the Lord on Sunday, December 23, 2012. She passed away at Broadway Manor Nursing Home with her loved ones and friends from Hometown Hospice at her side. Julie was born April 5, 1947 in Vian, Oklahoma where she was raised. She graduated from Vian High School with the class of 1967. After graduation, Julie attended Virgil's Beauty College where graduated in 1972. In 1973, on Thanksgiving Day, Julie met the love of her life, Carl Swearingin. The couple married on May 25, 1974 making their home in Muskogee until 1975 when they relocated to Bismark, Arkansas. Julie became a substitute teacher for special education students in the Arkadelphia, Arkansas school system. On January 12, 1980, the couple relocated back to Muskogee where Julie became a dedicated housewife. She enjoyed sewing, gardening, cooking, and caring for her beloved dogs, Gizzmo, Ponchavilla, Baby Grant, and Maxie B. Julie was a member of Eastern Heights Baptist Church in Muskogee. As a child, she attended Vian Baptist Church. Julie served the Lord her whole life and enjoyed singing in the choir. Julie was preceded in death, at the time of her birth, by her mother, Wanda "Pawnee" Wooten-Bennett; and later, by her father, "Doc" Ray Bennett; her paternal grandparents, James Taylor and Edna Alice Bennett, who raised her and her twin sister; and her maternal grandparents, Junis and Effie Wooten. Left to mourn her passing, her husband, Carl Swearingin of Muskogee; her identical twin sister, Judy Ann Bennett Cacy and husband Art of Tulsa; her niece, Cheryl Williams and husband Sonny of Tulsa; her two great nephews, Taylor and Tyler Williams, both of Tulsa; her mother-in-law, Ella "Josie" Swearengin of Gore; her sister-in-law, Jota Lee "Jodie" Spears; her brother-in-laws, Jimmy "Leon" Patrick and Bill Swearengin; and her very best friends, Gail Seviens and Teresa Fairchild, both who loved and cherished Julie; and her cousins that she was close to and grew up with, Martha Slape, Paula Page, Gail Warner, Joe Bennett, David Bennett, James Bennett, Mary Edna Sumpter, and Coleen Cox; also her uncles, Carroll Wooten and Raymond Moss, whom Julie adored!

“ Julie Bug,

It's not just coincidental that we crossed each others paths. God put u in my life for a reason. I love you and miss you so much.

Take care of my baby in heaven and I will take care of your daddy here on earth . Until we meet again,, I will always love u!
