

Kathryn J. Lancaster

December 19, 1922 - October 31, 2013

Kathryn Jeanine Lancaster left her family and friends on October 31, 2013 after several months of serious illness. Kathryn was born in Checotah, Oklahoma on December 19, 1922 to Mordicah J. and Myrtle (Duke) White. She married Johnie H. Walker in 1938 and had three children, Joni Kay Stinson, Marilyn Carol Ceraulo and Max Edward Walker. Marilyn Carol and Max Edward preceded her in death. She is survived by her oldest daughter, Joni Kay and husband, Dr. Warren Stinson of Omaha, NE, son in law, Paul Ceraulo of Copaigue, NY and step son, Harold Freeman and his wife Glenda of Booneville, AK.

She is also survived by her grandchildren, Scott Stinson and his wife, Kerry of Omaha, NE, Patrick Stinson of Omaha, NE, Mark Edward Walker and his wife Grace of Edmond, OK, Max Keith Walker of Yukon, OK, Jennifer Walker and her partner, B.J. Mashburn of Luther, OK, Michael David Walker of Yukon, OK, and Amanda Zecchin and her husband Rob of Stamford, CT.

Her grandchildren gave her the joy of 11 great grandchildren. They are Sydney, Olivia, and Mason Stinson of Omaha, NE, Lily and Maddie Walker of Edmond, OK, Ryan, Chelsea, and Austin Gibson of Luther, OK, Farah and Bailey Walker of Yukon, OK, and Daniel Walker Zecchin of Stamford, CT.

Friends played an important role in her life and while there were many, Frank

Stanley Reynolds of Checotah, OK and her neighbor of more than 20 years, Frances Darlene Cartlidge of Muskogee, OK made great and selfless contributions that kept her sparkling green Irish eyes smiling to the very end.

The family wishes to thank the staff of Eastar Medical Center and Broadway Manor Nursing Home for the care and compassion she received from them during her final days. It was exemplary.

A Memorial Celebration of her life will be held at the Cornerstone Funeral Home Chapel in the spring, 2014. Date and time to be announced.
