“Kenny was my dearest childhood friend. Summers were the best, because it meant two months in Muskogee with my grandparents, and that meant a barrel of summer fun with my cousin and best bud, Kenny. There are so many good memories and so many giggles. No one could make me laugh quite like he could. As an adult, Kenny was one of the hardest working people I ever knew. As a kid he was always doing chores for his mom without being asked. As a young adult, he held down three jobs to make ends meet. As a husband and father, he worked just as hard to take care of his family. He had an enormous well of energy, a great sense of humor and a deep love and appreciation for family. I know he will be sorely missed by all who had the pleasure of knowing him. Rest in Peace, Kenny.
