“ My heart goes out to the entire family and especially his daughters Sherri and Melanie and his wife Diane. It was a pleasure knowing Kenneth for the brief time I got to know him. Ken was a great military servant and we shared war stories about the times he served in Europe as an Army Armament Specialist and my times in South Korea. He had an interesting story about rubbing shoulders with the Russians on occasion. He was a blessing to all that knew him. Deepest condolences to you all, God bless Kenneth and the entire family.
