“ So dad I remembered this site even though I'm probably not supposed to be on it no more but oh well I feel as if I can talk to u right here. So as u know I have shut a lot of people out and people that said they was there for me ain't there they are saying things that are not funny they are using u against me and it's just really heartbreaking I wish u was here and I know that if u was u would say " hey lex don't worry about what they have to say because no matter what they are just a fake person" anyways I don't like talking to anyone about my feelings anymore because of what has happened lately so grandma wanted me to start writing my feelings down so I tried that and last night it was brought to my attention that it just was not helping me at all so I brought the journal thing down stairs to grandma and I said ( as in tears) if u want u can read this but I just can't write in it anymore because it is not helping me. Wel she said we will talk again so I came up stairs and tried to go to bed but couldn't and here I am now still in bed but it's 1:18pm in the afternoon I'm not going to public schools anymore I'm being homeschooled and I finally meet my teacher today well dad thanks for listening I hope your resting easy
Miss and love u lots dad

“ daddy...we are all gonna miss u dearly but u will never be forgotten and you will always be in our hearts. I know that life was really hard at some points but we always got through it together. If i would have known that this was gonna happen so soon , i would have said more to u and told u that i loved you ...My coming up 14th b-day is gonna be so hard on me knowing that u wont be there to see me grow up and see me get my stuff all figured out as i make my little mistakes but that doesn't matter right now...All that matters is that you are up in heaven watching down on us and hopefully laughing at all the little stupid things we do and having no pain at all...but daddy just know that i know u will be there with me everyday and every second and that you really loved us and that u cherished us all even though at some points it didn't feel like it .....dad just know that if i knew this was gonna happen i would have let you leave in the car on your b-day,i would have made u talk to me longer than what we did....dad i'm really gonna miss you being there for me when i needed help i knew that i could always come to u because u knew how it felt and i am so grateful to have u as the loving father that you was to me and sissy...daddy i have gone to see u almost 5 times already... i wish that u didn't have to leave us like that and i wish u didn't have to suffer like u did but daddy i promise that i will get to the bottom of this because i really want answers and i know that you might not want me to be this way but i can't help but to be selfish and want u here with me instead of being in heaven with Jesus.daddy just know that i am so so so sorry. i wish that there was something i could do for you..i wish that i could be there with you...i was always a daddy's girl since i was what 4 years old....daddy just know that we will see each other again i will make sure of that i promise... i will see u again tomorrow ! i love u daddy sincerely your loving daughter , Lexie <3

“ Uncle Kevin we miss u so much and if I known a couple days ago we're going to be your last day on Earth I would have made it your best day on Earth dir you today whenever I walked in to see your body I never thought that when I'm 13 I'm going to have to look at my Uncle dead in a coffin I didn't think the day would really come for some reason up until in 2018 I always thought that everyone in our family would live up to a hundred but I guess the world doesn't work like that and you either have to figure it out somehow does sometimes life isn't fair and if I could take back some stuff that I said to you I would and sometimes when someone dies you try to make it look like you're the reason why they died if you were here to be honest it doesn't even feel like you're gone I feel like it's all a dream like a bad dream that I could just wake up too but I haven't woke up to that dream but God brought you in this world for a reason and this reason was for Lexie Megan family I miss you so so much love you kevin rest in peace💜 and just wanna say happy birthday Love you uncle Kevin
