“ Kim was a great friend, sister-in-law, mother, and so much more. Although we were no longer SIL, we remained friends and shared lots of memories together. She will be missed and I know she is with the Lord and family gone before, especially reunited with her husband, Eldon. Thank you Kim for being in my life. Prayers for her boys and families.

“ Kim had visited with us at Oasis Community Church before Covid-19 hit back in the spring. She and I had been texting lots during this seclusion period. Couple weeks ago she ask us friends to pray for Joseph; her nephew very ill on hospice care in Tulsa. She loved him so. She told me last Sunday how much she loved the Lord and was so happy she would see him and her brother Robert one day. Little did she know it would be this soon! We were close with her when she lost Eldon in 2009 and then her friend Mark. I believe Kim has seen her Savior and now being with her loved ones gone before her! Prayers and love for her boys, Stephen and Chris!
