“ I always enjoyed seeing Kim when she came to South Carolina to visit family. She, Dona and Courtney would come. Then later more of the family came. Even though she had medical problems she always had that beautiful smile on her face. She missed the reunion this year because of her sickness. I knew she was a fighter and I always thought she would be up and around so she could visit later. However, the plans for her were different. God knew she was tired and called her home. I know we will all have a fantastic reunion one day. Love you my dear sweet cousin. Rest in peace.

“ I remember the good times we had at church and at the get togethers at your Aunt Jewel's with all the church people attending for special occasions. You were a great friend during my time there while my Dad pastored the Muskogee church and after I left too. You will be greatly missed. Enjoy your new home. Rick Williams

“ Will always remember her quick smile, welcome greeting and taking up a conversation like we had just seen each other. She has been a very brave individual all of her life. Never letting her medical problems get in the way of living. We will all miss her.

“ My best memory of Kim will always be her smile & her love of horses. I always loved horses too, although I couldn't ride like she did. I used to talk to her about horses, years ago, when she was riding a lot. She was just a kid, but you could see her eyes shine when she was on one. She cared about other people. She was a very special person & will always be a precious memory to me. I hope there is horses in heaven, Kim!
