“ Kim and I spent sixteen years together and during that time she was my sole companion. Kim played many roles in the life of my family. She was my companion, my confidant, and an “aunt” to many of my nieces and nephews. The family she left behind is much larger than those who were immediately in her life at the time of her passing. She has been, and will be missed by all of my family who experienced her presence.

Kim was forever a student. She enjoyed sociology so much so that she majored in it in college. I can recall countless conversations over what she had learned and how it explained the world around her. She had numerous books that she gathered over the years on the subject by her favorites which she treasured.

Kim was a veteran. Both in Muskogee and here in Norman she volunteered at VA hospitals in any capacity they would allow. She did so daily even if the tasks were as mundane as making coffee and popcorn. She incorporated her volunteerism into the various group appointments she had and considered it her job to bring a smile to a fellow veterans face at every opportunity.

Kim loved animals, specifically cats. We housed a few cats over the course of our relationship. The first of which, Scathach, Kim had when I met her. Eventually Homey and Molly joined us, and then Oscar... When we lost Oscar we acquired Conan, our only K-9 companion, who is still with me to this day.

Kim loved her family. She looked up to Jack, Marlene, Cecil, Tiffany, Joshua, and her extended family Beverly, Jolene, and Leighana. She spoke about them every chance she got about who they were and how she felt about them. Every one of them important to her in their own way.

Kim was an aunt. Kim made numerous trips with me to Moore to visit my family. Once we moved to Norman she was always excited to see the kids and have them stay weekends with us. We all enjoyed making big breakfasts, home made pizzas, watching movies, and various arts, crafts, and hobbies with the kids.

Kim will be missed.

“My beloved Auntie (something we use to call each other since 1991 when we served in the Navy together), you were a dear friend of mine and even though we lost touch these past few years I have always had you on my mind. You will always be a part of me, love you Auntie. Hugs and prayers to family and friends.
