“ My heart breaks for you all. I've known Leon for so many years. He was definitely one-of-a-kind. I always helped him order his traps, and scents, and I got tickled at all of his "get rich no-so-quick" schemes. If he wasn't busy inventing some new gadget that would set the world on fire, he was ordering the parts for the prototype! I will miss his many visits to the office, and seeing him at the auction and around town. Rest in Peace, Leon. And don't be giving God too much trouble!!
