

Larry Don Bell

September 22, 1953 - September 18, 2011

Larry Don Bell, 57, of Muskogee, Oklahoma passed away Sunday, September 18, 2011. He was born September 22, 1953 in Gore, Oklahoma. Larry was the youngest of six children born to Tom "Dink" Bell and Jessie Mae Moore Bell. He attended Muskogee schools and Connors College. He served in the Marines as a Private First Class having received an honorable discharge. Larry was a construction worker, worked for Brockway Glass, and was co-owner of Bell's Tree Service. His hobbies were hunting, fishing, motor cycle riding, and was known for being a terrific cook. He was also an avid reader. Larry was baptized at the Missionary Baptist Church. He was a cowboy at heart always wearing his cowboy hat and boots but his last request was to NOT be buried with his boots on as he was going to walk the streets of gold barefooted.

Larry was preceded in death by his father, Tom Bell; brother, Calvin Wayne Bell and an infant brother, Lee Roy Bell; and sister in law, Sharon Bell. He is survived by his mother, Jessie Mae Bell; sister, Anna Milligan and husband Leon of Muskogee; brothers, Troy Bell and wife Faye of Gore, James Bell and wife Connie of Wagoner, and family friend Pat Bell of Warner; nephews, Nick Milligan and wife Darla, Shannon and Angela Bell, Danny and Teresa Bell, Mark and Christina Bell, and Thomas Bell; nieces, Vickey Murry, Kristen Bowlin, and Alice Stone and husband Jim along with a host of great nieces, great nephews and very special friends.
