“ Thank all uncle Larry for all the fun n laughs n entertainment over the years. Your tell it like it is attitude was at times hilarious and now that you are gone we see most was true. I'm sorry to say your opinion of people was true for some and that's why you stayed to yourself. Little did you know that so called family would pack your stuff up before you took your last breath and deny your last living sister and children personal things that you would want them to have for sentimental memories. I'm glad you can't see the greed nor the hurt so called family has caused your sister, my mother. You were all she had left and she dearly loved you. I know her memories is enough cause that's all she has left, nothing to hold or look at and know the story's behind your personal items. We loved you very much. I hope you know that and we would give it all up to have you with us. Knowing you and loving you, and having you for an uncle is worth more than personal items taken by vultures.
