“ *Larry was a great husband, dad, father in-law, and grandfather. He would be there in a pinch if you needed anything. He liked to take care of others. Most of all, he was a wonderful grandfather. He always was wanting to spend his time with the grandkids. He asked to have them all the time. My kids are so blessed to have him as a grandfather. He will be truly missed. Love you! “ I had the honor of knowing Larry (Sophomore) back in high school at Warner where we played football together. Larry was a great guy and always laughing and full of fun. The world has lost a fantastic person and I have lost a friend and a teammate.

Rest in Peace Sophomore.
