“ My condolences to the family of LaVina. We became phone friends several months and we enjoyed talking to each other several times a day. She always prayed such beautiful prayers for me. I also enjoyed praying for her. She was so lively even in the midst of her pain. She talked about her wonderful family. We told each other about our days events. We both said that we felt like we knew each other all of our lives. She was such a blessing to me. My prayers are with you during this sad time and may Jesus comfort you.

“ I remember visiting Aunt Jo a couple of times over the summers when she lived in Missouri. My brother and I would ride bicycles to the church down the road from her house for vacation bible school. We must have made her a dozen macramé 'artifacts'. And it seems like we spent at least one Christmas there with her as well. I got a bb gun pistol and would spend sun up to sun down wandering in the woods around her house.

She always wanted us to be healthy and thought that cod liver oil was something we desperately needed. Which was horrible on the first spoon full and almost impossible on the second. Whew! It makes me laugh now about how bad I thought that stuff was.

Love you Aunt Jo!

“ Lavina Jo lived for sometime with us while her then husband was in the military and stationed overseas. She was a joy to be with and we had lots of laughs and even cried a few times. She will be greatly missed by her family and friends.
