“ I miss the many sarcastic moments, especially the time he tried to set me up on a date with the funeral director, after attending my twin cousins grandma's funeral! Funny thing even after being embarrassed director and I dated for 3 years. Thanks Mike! A wonderful good hearted man who will be missed dearly. Love you Mike see you one day in heaven. I'll be ready for the humor and sarcasm.

“ The way he was always teasing, the funny faces he would make, and the way he would laugh at some of the most offbeat stuff. There was never a dull moment with him around. He had such a huge heart!

“ Our canoe trips on the Illinois during spring floods! The clock making business that did not last that long, and so many other things we ventured into.
