“ Lorri will always have a special place in my heart. She was a good friend, she would listen like most people these days don't do, and give you her opinion whether you wanted to hear it or not. She was a straight shooter. Which is something I admired about her. Like Bettie mentioned in a post before I will miss those phone conversations! We would have long conversations about anything and everything. A lot of laughing, and of course crying too. Lorri was always there for me day or night, she would do anything for you. She has done so much for my daughter and my nieces, she was the best “grandma” anyone could ask for, and they all loved her dearly.

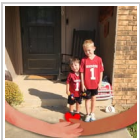

She took such good care of my Dad, even when she was sick she would take care of him and worry about him. She was the least selfish person I have ever met! I am so grateful that she came into my Dads life, and in turn my life.

I always enjoyed playing golf with her and Dad. We would team up on him and give him a hard time..... not that it was hard to do. :)

I only hope that she knew how much of a positive impact she made on our family.

Love always, Christy

“ We have been friends since we were little girls, played a lot of basketball and softball games together over the years. In recent years we have had a lot of serious and heartfelt conversations. I will miss those conversations with her the most. She was a good listener and good friend.

“ Lorri went to school with my little brother Terry but I didn't know her then. I met her when she and Lucky started dating. I remember thinking how lucky Lucky was to find so nice a person and one to share his life with. She loved life and was true to her friends. I saw her in the hospital not long before she passed and she was fighting to the end. She will be missed by many.

“ Lorri and I had a special relationship. I shall miss the phone call visits. We laughed, cried, shared our deepest feeling about everything. She was the one I always wanted (and had) in my corner. If she loved you, she would fight the devil for you and never back down. I will deeply miss her until the day I die.
