“ On behalf of: my mother, Belle Brown Cahoon, I wish to express deepest sympathies to all who loved and knew Louise. Belle grew up in Fort Gibson with families that knew her and shared early years together, graduating with the class of 1941, a classmate of Della Walden Cook, Armels sister. Belle often shared stories of those long ago times and was later surprised and grateful to be lovingly treated with speech therapy by Shanna Cale. I know that it pained her not to be able to speak more with Shanna about those early day connections with Armel and Louises families. Wishing the family many comforting and beautiful memories to remember such a loving, vibrant and remarkable lady. Love, Carolyn Cahoon Watts
