“ To The Cragg Children

I was saddened to learn that your beloved mother, Ann, has departed this life. You all most likely will not remember me, but may recognize my name. I met the Cragg family in March 1956 when my family moved from Georgia to Muskogee OK when my Air Force husband was transferred to Davis Field. We moved to a house across the street from the Cragg family and became good friends. I even kept you children every third week when Ann had to work shifts where she needed someone to be with you. You all were so well behaved children which was an indicator of what good parents you had. I had occasions over the years to be in or pass through Muskogee and I always stopped by to see Ann. My friend, Nancy Gassaway, always gave me news about Ann after she visited her each Christmas Eve. I know her family was what her life revolved around as well as her relationship with God. I know the good memories you have of Ann will help sustain you in the days ahead as you cope with your loss. God bless you all.
