“ I always liked Lyle he was so funny, he drove our church bus and took us to church outings, loved hearing him play the drums when I was little. One thing I remember was when he had me cut up this onion and it was making me cry but I wanted to be grown up and help so I stayed steadily on it until my mom made me quit...Lyle just laughed. I sure wish I had got to see him more over the years. Our family has grown apart and it's so sad. Well Lyle may you rest in peace cousin...you will be missed.
