“ My name is Victor V. Ludwig, and I was a lieutenant in Bravo Battery, 5/4 Artillery, in Vietnam while Jay was there. Indeed, I was generally the fire direction officer, and Jay served in the FDC. I have been attempting to make contact with him for years, and I only saw this posting, today. I am so very sorry for his family, and, quite candidly, I am sorry for myself because it is too late, and he will never know that I was trying to find him to thank him for his service in my command. He was pleasant, level-headed, calm under pressure, he did an admirable job in the FDC, and I considered him a friend. If I cannot tell him those things, at least I can tell it to those who loved him. You have my deepest sympathy.
