“ Miss Margret , beautiful inside and out with a heart of pure gold. We loved to laugh make light of things that hurt , and talk about how it would be nice sometimes just to thump some people on their little pointy heads... Miss Margret loved her husband with all of her heart .. her boys and all of those beautiful grand babies.. She always saw the good in others and was always with the belief that people do change and there is good in all of us.. Thank you for blessing my life with the priviledge and honor of knowing you . Love always , SA

“ We are so very sorry to hear of Margaret's passing. She was Dad's favorite, being the youngest & all. It is sad we didn't live closer; in geographically as well as kinship.

We lift you all up in prayer as you remember your wife, mom and friend. God's blessings on you.
