“ This is the hardest thing for me to do say goodbye to my dearest friend (cousin). We had many years of laughs, hugs, and tears. Tears usually from laughing so hard many times we weren't even sure at what. We just had that affect on each other. We would laugh so hard at times we would have to pee. My heart feels like I have lost part of myself. I will miss our movie trips antique shopping and weekend trips sometimes just hanging at the motel talking and watching TV. It was always a thrill because we were together. Mari Ann had a heart of gold she would never get mad at you at least not show it. She will truly be missed. It will take me a while to be able to move on without her. Goodnight Sweet Dreams Dear Friend 😞
