“ I met Martha and Erbie when I became their neighbor in Muskogee. We instantly became fast friends that has lasted over 20 years. She was my sister. Not by blood, but by love. I am so very blessed to have had her for the time I did. Now, may you rest my beauty and I will see you again. I sure hope we get to have your peach cobbler in heaven💜 May your girls, family and friends find comfort the days ahead knowing how much you meant to everyone you ever came in contact with. You will live on through all the memories we share.

“ Martha and I were classmates at Braggs School. We graduated together. She was a quiet, sweet girl, and a quiet, sweet, Christian lady, who was also a beautiful mother to her four daughters and a friend to many. Prayers for her family to be comforted by all their beautiful memories. She will be missed.
