

Mary Louise Freeman

May 19, 1926 - March 21, 2024

Mary Louise Freeman, beloved wife, mother, and cherished member of the community, passed away on Thursday, March 21, 2024, to be reunited with her loved ones in the embrace of the Lord.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Rena and Walter Brandenberger, her husband, Billy and her son, Robert.

Mary Lou and Billy shared a remarkable bond, celebrating 75 years of marriage before Billy's passing in 2019. Together, they epitomized love, companionship, and devotion. They had been vibrant and active members of their community, engaging in golf, tennis, bowling, and active in the Trinity United Methodist Church.

Throughout her life, Mary Lou brought joy and laughter to those around her. Her upbeat personality and ever-present smile illuminated every room she entered, earning her a place as a beacon of positivity within her circles of family, friends, and colleagues.

Mary Lou worked for the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) for 32 years until her well-deserved retirement. One of her fondest memories was her retirement party, where she surprised attendees by playing the song "Take This Job and Shove It," a testament to her playful and spirited nature.

A memorial service to celebrate Mary Lou's life will be at 1:30PM, Friday, March 29, 2024 at Fort Gibson National Cemetery.

“Mary Lou was a dear friend who showed the love of Jesus through her love, joy, and generosity. She loved to hear Wendell play the piano and sing. Mary Lou gave Wendell a song, "Hymn Of Promise" to learn. Wendell sings that hymn in his music ministry. We are thankful, Mary Lou is having a family reunion in Heaven. Wendell and Vicki Davis
