

Mary Louise McGrew

September 16, 1928 - October 31, 2020

Mary Louise McGrew was born in Webbers Falls, Oklahoma to Selma and Lucille Morgan on September 16, 1928. She passed peacefully on October 31, 2020.

On April 25th, 1946 she married Charles McGrew in Muskogee, Oklahoma. She was the apple of his eye for 74 years. Charles and Louise made their home in Warner, Oklahoma, deciding it was where they wanted to raise their four girls.

Mary Louise McGrew, Muchie, Mom, Grandma, Granny, was a woman of many names, a woman of many hats. She was family to everyone who knew her, and she loved every single person she met. She was beautiful, strong, and a little bit stubborn. She worked various jobs throughout her life but her most important one was her home. Louise was always putting her family first before herself and was known for taking care of everyone. During her last few years, her family had the honor of returning the favor and caring for her. She was kindhearted with a little bit of sass, and we would not have had it any other way.

Louise was preceded in death by her parents; her three brothers, Bill Morgan, Gene Morgan, and Carl Robinson; and oldest daughter, Judy Weiher.

She is survived by her husband, Charles McGrew of Warner, OK; daughters, Jeannie McGrew of Roland, OK, Celia Thomas and husband Bob of Edmond, OK, and Hayley McGrew of Huntsville, AL; son-in-law, Roy Weiher of Rogers, AR; as well as seven grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. She was “Aunt Muchie” to many and has numerous loved ones living across the west coast.

Louise was a fighter, but on the morning of October 31, 2020 her fight was over. She joined her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, as well as many family members and friends. A celebration of Louise’s wonderful life of 92 years will be 2pm, Thursday, November 5, 2020 at First Baptist Church in Warner, OK with Pastor Justin Villines officiating. Interment will follow at Memorial Cemetery, Warner, OK with Ronnie Ellis, Leo Smithson, Mark Calavan, Charlie Reed, Bobby Charles Jones, and Randy Weiher serving as pallbearers.
