Don't cry for me.

I will be okay.

Heaven is my home now,
and this is where I'll stay.

Don't cry for me.

I'm where I belong.

I want you to be happy
and try to stay strong.

Don't cry for me.

It was just my time,
but I will see you someday
on the other side.

Don't cry for me.

I am not alone.

The angels are with me
to welcome me home.

Don't cry for me,
for I have no fear.
All my pain is gone,
and Jesus took my tears.

Don't cry for me.
This is not the end.
I'll be waiting here for you
when we meet again.

“ My heart and love go out to the family. My mother and I spent Thanksgiving dinner one year with Mary and her husband and some of her grandkids. Her daughter Jennifer and son-in-law Jamie cooked the dinner. She was so pleasant to talk to that day and we all enjoyed that blessed day. There is a song that I love dearly and it helped me during the days after my brother Jim passed in 2021. It is called if you could see where I am you would not cry. God said Marys work on earth was done and he called her home. God bless the family and her friends. She will be missed dearly. Xxxooo
