When my mother, Chloe Garroutte, lived in Oklahoma, Maude and her daughter were great friends checking on and visiting with her especially when she had a stroke leaving her blind and making it necessary to move to Georgia with my sister. Maude and Carol were so kind and helpful and above all shared their Christian love and faith with my mother who passed away 12-23-2017. I know that we shared in Maude and Carol's kindness and our love goes out to Carol as her mother goes to be with the Lord. Our love to you Carol.
