“ Max lived next door to me in the early 90s. I was just a kid, but Max trusted me to help paint a bout that he had. I remember it like it was yesterday. It was pink, silver, and white. Max was always good to me. I've thought about you guys hundreds of times over the years. I sure was looking forward to saying hello. I'll never forget you guys. R.i.p. my friend.

“ Max and I grew up in the same neighborhood in Lawton, Oklahoma. He had a front tooth that was missing as result of a accident on a bike while he was taking me home. I was ridding on the handle bars. We dated the girls together and had parties at his house. Max and I started highscool football together at Eisenhower in Lawton. Our adult lives took us in different directions but I have thought of him often over the years.
