

Melvin Ray "Joe" Davis

October 31, 1941 - June 4, 2012

Melvin Ray "Joe" Davis, 70, of Muskogee, Oklahoma, formerly of Riverbank, CA., passed away Monday, June 4, 2012. He was born on October 31, 1941 in Corning, Arkansas to Melvin Davis and Dorothy Overstreet Davis. Joe attended Oakdale High School in Riverbank, California. His father noticed he had a love for vehicles and taught him how to work on them. While in high school, Joe joined the Navy where he would further his mechanical skills while working as an engineer on the USS Hancock. After his honorable discharge from the Navy, he met and later married Judy Ann Davis on August 15, 1989 in Fort Smith, Arkansas. He spent time in his later days building model cars, trucks, and ships. Joe was a member of the Masonic Lodge and Muskogee Shriners.

Joe was preceded in death by his parents, Melvin and Dorothy Davis; wife, Judy Ann Davis; and brother, Bob Davis.

He is survived by his children, Adam Troy Davis and wife Judy of Muskogee, Le Wilson of Tulsa; Robert Lewis of Texas; Amanda Burgess and husband Ryan of Muskogee; sister, Helen Huffman; aunt, Tresa Lester; nephew, Steve Davis, all of California; several grandchildren and other family members and friends.

The family would like to express a very special "Thank You" to Outreach Home Health and Hometown Hospice for all their wonderful care.

Sorry I missed seeing you Joe, I just wanted to remember you like the last time I saw you. I appreciated so much when you brought Judy to Jack's funeral and took such good care of her for her family. I loved you for being a rock for so many years. Now get some rest in heaven because Judy has been waiting almost 4 years to give you hell, give her a kiss from me.
